As a Counter Attendant you will be expected to complete the following but could also be asked to perform duties as a Floor Attendant and should be willing to rotate position as needed.

Both positions are customer service oriented, and it is important that you are comfortable speaking English, interacting with the customers, and assisting them in a timely manner.

Counter Attendant:

Count customer winnings from the arcade games and video pokers and issue vouchers or post to their account. Provide merchandise to customers who are purchasing items. Gateway has a big storage facility where the employees must locate and retrieve the desired merchandise.

Participants will be in constant contact with customers and that is why excellent knowledge of English is a necessity. You must be able to work under stress and still maintain good spirits. A friendly and outgoing personality is required.

If you are asked to work as a Floor Attendant:

This is a fast-paced job that requires the ability to work quickly and interact with the public during the entire shift. An outgoing and friendly personality is required. Floor Attendants must be comfortable working with American money and have good math skills. They must wear a money apron and make change for the customers as needed. They must fill the slot and poker machines with tickets and tokens. They must fix very minor problems with the machines such as quarter jams and token/ticket jams. The employees are also required to keep the area and machines clean.

More importantly is for the employees to act as an ambassador to the customers. Our customers play the machines as a social experience and most of them prefer to engage in conversation for the majority of the time they are playing. The employees need to engage the customers in conversation while taking care of the basics of their job.

Gateway also runs almost continual slot and poker tournaments. During these tournaments the employees must assist customers with change and extra points and at the end of them quickly move from customer-to-customer awarding bonus hands.

We are flexible with the hours we give to our employees. You will usually have the same shifts all summer long. That gives you a chance to look for a second job easily. Participants who work better than the others will be given a chance to work more hours.

Wildwood is a beach resort area that provides a lot of possibilities for both work and entertainment. Every year students from all over the world come here. The multi-international culture of the city can be seen in its entertainment life and you can enjoy European theme days and parties as well as experience American festivals and events. Our employees have fun while earning money!

You must arrive by the date agreed to in our job offer and you are expected to remain at the Host Company the entire length of your agreement.

You will be expected to arrive to work on time, in proper uniform, and ready to work.

Gateway 26 Casino Arcade has high customer service expectations and you will be expected to perform you job as taught in training. Advanced English, an outgoing personality, and the desire to have fun while working is required.
