Area Information

Area Information:

Martha's Vineyard is an island located south of Cape Cod in Massachusetts. The island has a land area of 87.48 square miles and is the 58th largest island in the United States and the third largest on the East Coast of the United States. It is also the largest island not connected to mainland by a bridge or tunnel on the East Coast of the United States.

The Vineyard is like no other place in the world. Though the Island is small, each of its 6 towns has its own distinct charm and personality: Edgartown, Vineyard Haven, Oak Bluffs, Chilmark, Menemsha, Aquinnah.

Martha's Vineyard is famous for being the summer vacation retreat of the United States President. Many presidents, including President Obama, spend their summer holidays on Martha's Vineyard.
