Area Information

Area Information:
Area Description: Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge is located near the entrance to Denali National Park on the George Parks Highway. Websites: www.princessjobs.com Climate: Temperatures in Denali can vary greatly. During mid-summer (June, July, August) temperatures can reach 70 degrees Fahrenheit with lows in the 40's and 50's. There is always the possibility of rain and snow at all times even during the summer months. Early and late season temperatures tend to be colder and between 30-50 degrees Fahrenheit. Altitude: 1500 feet above sea level Nearest Major Cites: Fairbanks is 2 hours away, Anchorage is 6 hours away, and Seward is 8 hours away by car.

Additional Information:
1. Mosquitoes can be a nuisance during the summer months. Some sort of bug spray or repellant is recommended for those who are sensitive to mosquitoes.
2. Arrangements for mail delivery are the employee's responsibility. No mail can be sent to the employee at the lodge's address. Employees should make arrangements for a personal post office box either before or upon their arrival at the lodge. This policy will be strictly enforced.
3. Since phone card prices can vary considerably in the U.S. employees should consider purchasing phone cards in their home countries which can be used within the U.S. for international calls.
4. Currency exchange and check-cashing facilities are not available at the lodge or in Denali Park. The nearest location for these facilities is in Fairbanks. It is highly advisable for each employee to establish a banking account prior to arrival at the lodge either in Fairbanks or Anchorage in order to have their paychecks automatically deposited.
